BJSO CONCERT POSTPONEMENT ANNOUNCEMENT
*Obras Maestras Latinas

WHAT: The Beloit Janesville Symphony Orchestra, unfortunately, is announcing the postponement of its upcoming concert, Obras Maestras Latinas, Latin Masterworks. The concerts were scheduled to be held on March 14, 2020, at 2:00pm at Eaton Chapel on the Beloit College campus, and at the Janesville Performing Arts Center, Sunday, March 15, 2020 at 2:00pm.

The staff and Board thought it prudent that we display an abundance of caution for both our audience and musicians by practicing social distancing as advised by health officials in the interest of prevention.

It is our intention to reschedule this concert sometime in late spring 2020.

TICKETS: the BJSO will honor all tickets purchased at either the JPAC Box Office or on-line, for both concerts. You may redeem your tickets at our Mother's Day Concert on Sunday May 10 at JPAC, or at the rescheduled Obras Maestras Latinas, or, you may donate them back to us, or if you prefer, you may contact Edie Baran at exec@beloitjanesvillesymphony.org for a cash refund.
